Plaintiffs,

v.

MICHAEL B. MUKASEY, Attorney General of the United States; KARIN J. IMMERGUT,
United States Attorney, District of Oregon;
HENRY M. PAULSON, Secretary of the U.S.
Department of the Treasury,

Defendants.

I, Ronald D. Rosen, state under penalty of perjury as follows:

I live and practice medicine in Bend, Oregon. I am a member of the plaintiff Church (CHLQ). I have asked my lawyer to seek the Court's Order placing my deposition in this case under seal until further order of the court. My reasons for this request are based on my great fear that if my deposition is made public I will suffer recriminations that will damage or destroy my career as a physician, and I may be threatened with arrest and prosecution because of my church activities. Although my religious practices are perfectly legal, the government claims otherwise and has announced that it may arrest and prosecute any members of the Santo Daime Church who partake of its sacramental offerings at church services. Until this dispute is resolved, publicity arising out of my deposition would be extremely damaging to my professional career and community life in Bend. Reprisals against physicians by the federal government are not without precedent, such as the threat by the Department of Justice against Oregon physicians who administered a Controlled Substance to dying patients in accordance with the Assisted Suicide Laws to have their licenses to prescribe Controlled Substances revoked.

Pursuant to 28 USC Section 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Dated this 11th day of November, 2008.

Ronald D. Rosen, M.D.
