DENISE CURRY, B.A., M.P.A., J.D.

Denise Curry is currently the Deputy Director, Office of Diversion Control.

Employed for 34 years with the U. S. Department of Justice Drug Enforcement Administration, Ms. Curry began her career in May 1974 as a Diversion Investigator assigned to the Detroit Field Office. In this capacity she performed individually and as team leader to conduct criminal and regulatory investigations into violations of the Controlled Substances Act.

In 1986 she was promoted to the position of Supervisory Diversion Investigator and transferred to the Los Angeles Field Office. From 1986-1992, she directly supervised a staff of 10 investigators. Her responsibilities extended to the full-range of registrant investigations, including targeting organizations and individuals involved in illegal trafficking.

In 1992 Ms. Curry was assigned to the Liaison Unit as a Staff Coordinator. From 1992-1997, she provided consultation to the field division offices concerning interpretation of various statutes, regulations and policy and their impact on investigations; conducted liaison activities with representatives of the pharmaceutical industry, health care professionals, state and local authorities, foreign governments and other Federal agencies; and developed written policy and guidelines for implementation of diversion programs.

In October 1997 Ms. Curry was promoted to the Chief of the Liaison Unit in the Liaison and Policy Section, Office of Diversion Control. Ms. Curry served in this capacity until July 2003.

In July 2003 Ms. Curry was assigned to the Office of Inspection as an Inspector. She served as an Inspector from July 2003 through December 2003.

In January 2004 Ms. Curry was a temporary detail to the Office of Diversion Control as the Executive Assistant to the Deputy Assistant Administrator for the Office of Diversion Control. In February 2004 Ms. Curry was promoted to the position of Executive Assistant.

In February 2005 Ms. Curry was appointed to the position of Deputy Director, Office of Diversion Control the position she currently holds.

Ms. Curry is a native of Detroit, Michigan. She received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Mercy College of Detroit (1974), a Master Degree in Public Administration from University of Detroit (1980) and a Juris Doctorate Degree from Whittier College School of Law (1991).
